

Introducing a new initiative from National Career Academy Coalition!

Academy Leaders' Collaborative

... an institute for transformational leadership training.

Dear Academy Leaders,

NCAC is proud to announce a year-long Career Academy Leaders' Collaborative. In partnership with the Education Development Center (EDC), this is a unique, well-supported program engineered to identify and mobilize career academy leaders across the country.

The Career Academy Leaders' Collaborative is a powerful new opportunity for school district leaders and educators to develop adaptive leadership capacity, build knowledge, and enhance skills to create and enact transformative ideas that empower their community. The program consists of a year-long fellowship built on in-person and virtual collaborative experiences. The overarching goal of the Career Academy Leaders Collaborative is to develop the leadership capacity to grow school-community networks that harness the power of collective impact, ultimately improving the economic and life chances of all youth.

We are accepting applications for the 2018 cohort of 30 academy leaders. Promising applicants will have the following attributes:

- A minimum of three years experience with implementation of the Academy Model.
- Individuals who are recognized by their organization as having strong leadership potential.
- An understanding of the ten National Standards of Practice for Career Academies.
- Individuals committed to learning and developing leadership skills.
- Individuals that seek and value a collaborative approach when working with others.
- Experience with collaboration technologies (webinar, document sharing, etc.)
- Comfortable with the complexity and fluidity of transformational change.
